

Vår_pust 01

breathe |brēð|

verb [intrans.]

take air into the lungs and then expel it, esp. as a regular physiological process : she was wheezing as she breathed | breathe in through your nose | he breathed out heavily | [trans.] we are polluting the air we breathe.

- be or seem to be alive because of this : at least I'm still breathing.
- poetic/literary (of wind) blow softly.
- [with direct speech] say something with quiet intensity : "We're together at last," she breathed.
- (of an animal or plant) respire or exchange gases : plants breathe through their roots.
- [trans.] give an impression of (something) : the whole room breathed an air of hygienic efficiency.
- (of wine) be exposed to fresh air : red wine needs untold time to breathe.
- (of material or soil) admit or emit air or moisture : let your lawn breathe by putting air into the soil.
- [trans.] allow (a horse) to rest after exertion.
- (breathe upon) archaic or poetic/literary tarnish or taint : before the queen's fair name was breathed upon.

PHRASES

breathe (freely) again relax after being frightened or tense about something : she wouldn't breathe freely again until she was airborne.

breathe down someone's neck follow closely behind someone. • constantly check up on someone.

breathe one's last die.

breathe (new) life into fill with enthusiasm and energy; reinvigorate : spring breathes new life into a wintry woods.

breathe a sigh of relief exhale noisily as a sign of relief (often used hyperbolically) : they breathed a great sigh of relief after the election was won.

live and breathe see live 1.

not breathe a word remain silent about something; keep secret.

Når: Lørdag 4.Juni kl. 11:00 – 12:00-ish

Hva: Gjennom å observere og aktivt delta i pusten reguleres pusten og pusterommet utvides. En behagelig time med avslapning og litt guidet meditasjon med tilstedeværelse i pusten som metode og mål. "If you don't breathe right, you don't feel right"

Hvor: S.P.A.C.E, Thorvald Meyersgate 56. Vis a vis Food Story. Inn i bakgården mellom metodistkirken og kafe Kaos, opp i andre etasje og inn den røde døren.

Påmelding: Da det er litt begrenset med plass si ifra om du (og/eller noen du kjenner) har lyst til å komme, enten på mail: marcel@betarom.no Eller tlf: 47418378, det koster ikke no.

Bare ta kontakt dersom du har spørsmål.